Ways to Give to the Clarkdale Foundation

Donations

Cash, check, PayPal (via our website) or donations of your time are all appreciated. They are tax-deductible to the extent allowable by law.

Bequests

Improve your tax situation. Consider leaving a portion of your estate to the Clarkdale Foundation. The simplest gift is a bequest in your will or trust that directs specific assets or a percentage of your estate to the Clarkdale Foundation to benefit Clarkdale.

Charitable Remainder Trusts

Through an irrevocable trust, you receive fixed or variable payments for your lifetime or a term of years. The remainder passes to the Clarkdale Foundation, to benefit Clarkdale.

Charitable Lead Trusts

Your income-producing asset funds a trust with a gift of the income flowing to the Clarkdale Foundation during the term of the trust. Remaining assets go to your heirs free of tax on the assets' appreciation.

Retirement and Insurance Beneficiary Designations

You can benefit the Clarkdale Foundation by designating us as the beneficiary of a retirement plan such as an IRA or 401(k) or a life insurance policy. At death, the assets transfer to the Clarkdale Foundation, reducing estate and income taxes.
